1. The SSHO [REDACTED] telephoned me this afternoon to tell me that [REDACTED] had assigned the MIA History Project to a [REDACTED] who has visited [REDACTED] expressing his feeling that he ought to be able to work full time on the history as it will be very difficult for him to do the writing along with his regular job. [REDACTED] said he had given [REDACTED] a suggested outline for the project.

2. [REDACTED] expressed his personal view that this project is quite important and ought to be completed as soon as possible. He felt it particularly important to have the background facts straight if anyone should turn up from MIA status.

3. Later [REDACTED] telephoned me. He said he is working in RAD for [REDACTED] and has been given responsibility for the subject history project. He said he had talked with [REDACTED] who had given him a copy of the Agency Historical Manual as a guide and who also suggested that [REDACTED] might read the Retirement History. [REDACTED] mentioned that he had worked with [REDACTED] and asked if I could send him a copy of the Retirement History for his review.

4. I told [REDACTED] that we had one copy of the History in the Office of Personnel. I agreed to loan it to him asking that he return it as soon as he has reviewed it.

5. [REDACTED] said he wished he could have full time on the project as he thought it would be very difficult to do the work on the history project while doing his own job too.
